

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

JULY 31, 1961

UPI-175

(CIA)

WASHINGTON--PRESIDENT KENNEDY HAS NO EARLY PLANS TO NAME A SUCCESSOR TO ALLEN W. DULLES AS DIRECTOR OF THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY, THE WHITE HOUSE SAID TODAY.

PRESS SECRETARY PIERRE SALINGER MADE THE STATEMENT WHEN ASKED ANEW ABOUT REPORTS THAT FOWLER HAMILTON, 50-YEAR-OLD WALL STREET ATTORNEY, WAS THE LEADING CANDIDATE FOR THE POST.

ASKED IF HE ANTICIPATED ANY ANNOUNCEMENT ON THE MATTER WITHIN A WEEK OR SO, SALINGER SAID FLATLY, "NO."

7/31--N 521 PED